HEART OF AMERICA TOUCHED TO QUICK

PRESIDENT WILSON THIS MORNING MAKES NOTABLE ADDRESS TO THE FRENCH PEOPLE AT PARIS CITY HALL.

GREETING OF THE FRENCH PEOPLE RAISES ANEW MANY QUESTIONS

Reasons Why U. S. Entered the War, Were That Hearts of People Were Shocked and Principles Softened.

PARIS, DECEMBER 16.—(Associated Press)—President Wilson delivered an address today at the city hall, where ceremonies had been arranged for. The President replied to the greeting extended him.

"Your greeting has raised many emotions within me," the President began. "It is no ordinary sympathy that the people of the United States, for whom I have the privilege of speaking, have viewed the suffering of the people of France. Many of our own people have been themselves witnesses of those sufferings.

"We were the more deeply moved by the wrongs of the war because we know the manner in which they were perpetrated. ****

"These sufferings have filled our hearts with indignation. We know that they were not only unjustly inflicted, but we know what they signify and our hearts were touched to the quick by them. Our imaginations filled with the whole picture of what France and Belgium, in particular, had experienced.

"When the United States entered the war therefore, they entered it not only because they were moved by a conviction that the purposes of the Central Empires were wrong and must be resisted by men everywhere who loved liberty and the right, but also because the illicit ambitions which they were entertaining and attempting to realize had fled to the practices which shocked our hearts as much as they offended our principles.

"Our resolution was formed because we knew how profoundly great principles of right were affected, but our hearts moved also with our resolution.

"**** You have made me feel very much at home here, not merely by the delightful warmth of your welcome, but also by the manner in which you have made me realize to the utmost the intimate community of thought and ideals which characterizes your people and the great nation which I have the honor for the time to represent. Your welcome to Paris I shall always remember as one of the unique and inspiring experiences of my life, and while I feel you are honoring the people of the United States in my person, I shall nevertheless carry away with me a very keen personal gratification in looking back upon these memorable days.

"Permit me to thank you from a full heart."

GREATEST WHEAT CROP IN HISTORY IS PROMISED

Acreage This Winter 16 Per Cent Larger Than Last Year

800 000 000 Bushel Crop is Forecasted by Statisticians

Other Crop Prospects Promising Also

(By Associated Press)

Washington, December 16.—The largest winter wheat crop ever grown in the history of the United States is promised by the enormous acreage sown this fall. The acreage is almost 16 per cent larger than last year and totals 49,027,000 acres.

A crop of 765,000,000 bushels, or 80,000,000 bushels more than the best record is forecast by the Department of Agriculture as next year's winter wheat yield, allowing for winter killing and spring abandonment.

In a statement summarizing the report the Department said:

"The new winter wheat crop promise for transcends the performance of any past year in the history of the United States.

"A long and almost perfect fall planting season coupled with an extraordinary effort on the part of the farmers resulted in the seeding of a total of 49,000,000 acres.

"The same favorable season that permitted the amazing increase in acreage has also given to the growing plant the finest condition on record, 98.5 per cent, with eight important wheat states at 100 per cent of over and only one state, not at all important, below 90 per cent.

"The eye acreage this autumn is slightly larger than last, being 6,320,000, compared with 6,798,000 acres. The condition is 89 per cent. The forecast is a somewhat larger production than last year's record crop of 89,100,000 bushels.

63.1 per cent of the total area planted to winter wheat in 1918-19, or 49,027,000 acres, was planted to hard red winter wheat, compared with 61.4 per cent, or 47,400,000 acres, in 1917-18. The balance of the crop is made up of soft red winter wheat, durum wheat and other varieties.

ORDER SHARP REDUCTION IN PHONE TOLLS

Government Announces A New Rate Materially Reducing Present Telephone
Toll Rate — May Talk
Five Minutes.

A sharp reduction in long distance telephone rates is announced by the government, effective January 21st, and on and after that date the rate will be 6 1/4 mills for a conversation not exceeding five minutes. Heretofore the rate has been substantially more than the new rate and the talking time has been three minutes.

It is expected that rates between this city and other points will be materially reduced under the new order.

A Washington dispatch announcing the change says in part: "Sweeping reductions in long distance and toll telephone rates by the adoption of a basic charge of 6 1/4 mills a mile airline mileage and half the day rate for night service up to midnight and one-fourth the day rate after that hour, were announced today by Postmaster General Harrison. They become effective next January 21st.

The new rates were recommended in the first report of the committee on rate standardization and Mr. Harrison's statement said their effect is to equalize the toll and long distance charges over the country, removing distinctions and preferences and paving a scientific basis for reductions contemplated as unification of telephone and telegraph wires proceeds.

"A night service rate," said the statement, "which is one-half the day rate, is established between 6:30 and 12 midnight. Between midnight and 4:30 a. m., the night rate is one-fourth of day rate. These are greater reductions in night rates than have ever been made in any country, and doubtless, will be extensively used, especially for social and family purposes.

"A station-to-station service is established, such as now exists in the balance of the world; that is, when a connection is established with a man's home or office, the opportunity is provided to talk at the day rate, which is the basic rate. This rate, up to 24 miles, is at the rate of 5 cents for six minutes, and for greater distances, 5 cents for each eight minutes. The distance is computed by straight line methods and not by pole line or public highways.

"In many large sections of the country the smallest toll rate has been not less than 15 cents. Under the new scheme for short distances the rates are reduced to 5 cents and 10 cents for the cheapest form of service the person can talk five minutes, as compared with three minutes now or in some cases only two minutes or one minute. Free toll areas, where the exchange rate was designed to be a free service or a low charge, are not affected by this order.

JOHN A. PARRETT
(By the Editor)

We again approach with sorrowing steps the parting of life's ways with a fallen brother and neighbor. Few days have passed since the vibrations of his heart were in full sympathy and accord with friends and loved ones. His lips and hands, through gentle speech and kindly deeds betokened evidence of all the generous and manly traits of life. Today the lips that uttered words of joy and peace and hands that rendered loyal service to his fellow men, are sealed and stilled by death's cold heartless touch. The allotment of three score years and ten seems but the "trifling span of time," as he goes to form a sacred link in the golden chain of memory. So ends the earthly career of John A. Parrett, and so ends it for each of us.

He was born on the farm, about four miles south of Jeffersonville, Ohio, December 19, 1846, and died December 3, 1918, lacking but nine days of reaching the age of Seventy-two years. He was the son of Elias and Sarah Connor Parrett, pioneers of the county of Fayette and belonged to a family of five children, four of whom survive. His brothers and sisters are, Armelda Johnson, Salathiel and Clayton C. Parrett and Mrs. Mart L. McCoy.

When a mere lad of the age of seventeen years, he joined the Union Army in the Civil War and became a member of Company D, 168th Reg. O. V. I., and served during the remainder of the war as "Drummer Boy". The spirit of patriotic devotion to his country, that led him as a boy to this altar of supreme sacrifice, was his chief inspiration and joy in all the years that followed. He found great delight in the Grand Army Organization and in the comradeship of its members at their stated conventions. The music of the life and drum that quickened his heart beats and made elastic his boyhood steps, caused his bosom to heave with patriotic pride throughout the entire march of life. He kept his Snare Drum till the end and many times in the quiet of his home, as well as on public occasions he gave evidence of the great delight it afforded him and of the sacred memories of his army life kept fresh through this familiar medium. The military experiences of his youth linked him closely to the events of the great World War and now ending while the nations await the terms of peace. This predominant spirit of his life made him anxious for the success of the allied armies and he daily traveled in his fancies with the brave Americans boys who followed the stars and stripes, as he did in his young, in the great cause of freedom for the peoples of the earth.

On the first day of October in 1876 he was married to Emma Mercer, and one daughter, Mary, now Mrs. A. W. Duff, was born of this marriage. The wife and daughter both survive, and sadly share together the distressing burden of sorrow that comes with death of the faithful and devoted husband and father. The greater portion of his life had been spent on his farm near the place of his birth. He lived a quiet unassuming home life. His habits of life were fraught with thrift and industry. His attention to his business and the interests of agriculture were as constant and untiring as his love for his country. While he was serious in all his endeavors, yet he was fond of jesting and loved the cheerful exchange of filiations with his associates. His honor and integrity were unquestioned and he was a truthful and upright citizen in every responsibility that confronted his life.

He was a man of strong religious conviction. He loved and feared God. When about twenty years of age he confessed Christ as his Savior and from that time until his death affiliated with the Methodist Protestant Church. For many years he was a member of Spring Grove Church society near his country home and some time ago when he moved to Jeffersonville, brought his membership to that church, to which he remained faithful until the end. He leaves behind an exemplary and Godly life, and while his loved ones, family and friends are bowed with grief as he responds to the final summons of the Great Commander, it should be the greatest consolation to them that memory's garden will be adorned with the richest garlands of bloom and flourish, only, through the cultivation of an unselfish christian character.

BRITON FLEET GETS NEWS OF THE ARMISTICE

London, December 10.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—A vast chorus of siren whistles from a thousand and fighting ships split the air when the British Grand Fleet received the news of the signing of the armistice. First the thirty-mile line of vessels sprang into light. Then, suddenly, the great fleet of battleships, cruisers, torpedo destroyers, mine-layers and patrol units in one huge, synchronized diapason that startled the hearers for a radius of a hundred miles. The tremendous sound echoed amongst the hills on both shores, awesome in its intensity. A hundred searchlights, which for four years had resolutely watched the skies, or peered steadfastly along dark waters for enemy craft, merrily criss-crossed about the sky. Flares were lit, star shells fired, and here and there some of the greater ships were fortunate in a fireworks display. For sixty minutes the Fleet threw off all reserve and let itself go. At nine o'clock the sirens suddenly silenced, the lights snapped out and the Grand Fleet was again waiting and watching and ready, and scarcely had the last sounds died away than from the Admirals' ships there were winking at the masthead the orders for further duty.

HAASE AND BARTH QUIT
Geneva, December 16.—(By Associated Press)—Hugo Haase and Herr Barth, two of the three Independent Socialist members of the commission of six which constitutes the German government, have resigned, according to reports received here. The reports add that George Ledebour, a leading Socialist, also has severed his connections with the government.

THE LEVIATHAN WAITS FOR FOG TO ROLL AWAY

The Great Transport With 8000 Soldiers Aboard in Outer Harbor of New York

(By Associated Press) New York, December 16.—Due to heavy fog, which has hung over port for the past 24 hours, the American transport Leviathan, with more than 8000 American soldiers and sailors from France, was unable to dock Sunday. The ship arrived off Sandy Hook yesterday, but her size made unsafe any attempt to proceed through the channel. If the fog lifts the Leviathan will dock early today.

The French line steamship Chicago, which went aground early Sunday in the lower harbor while outward bound, was freed at high tide and proceeded on her voyage to Bordeaux.

The Norwegian steamship Nils, with cargo, which sailed Sunday morning, struck a submerged wreck in the lower harbor and was forced to run on a beach to prevent sinking.

The fog all but stopped the movement of harbor craft and ferries. Several ships which made quarantine during the night, among them the Ward Line steamer Monterey, with passengers from Mexico and Cuba, managed to reach their docks under low speed.

Blinded by the heavy fog, the motorman of a Brooklyn elevated train drove his train into the rear of another train which had stopped. One man was killed and six injured in the collision.

ROADS SUFFER AS RESULT OF RAINS

The continued rainy weather, and large amount of traffic on the highways of the county have combined to place some of the highways in rather disagreeable condition, with the result that the new road "maintainer" has an abundance to do and can be kept busy every day for some time to come, and given a thorough test as to its worth.

New ruts and chuck holes have appeared in the surface of some of the highways as result of the open weather, and unless these are given prompt attention, will speedily spread and result in many really serious breaks in the fine surface of the roadways.

Face The Facts Squarely

Some day, and let us hope it is not far in the future, some man is going to appear in Ohio's political arena who will have the courage to tell the people the whole truth about public expenses and taxation.

For a long time the candidates for office from the highest to the lowest have been campaigning upon a platform promising lower taxes and more improvements—making promises that can't be fulfilled. There never was a time in the history of the state when public expenses were greater than they are today and there is never going to come a time when they will be less than they are now. They can't be less because the demand for necessary public improvements far outstrips the sum total of receipts derived from an increased tax duplicate with a fixed rate limit like we have in Ohio.

The present annoying condition of school and city finances is illustrative of true conditions. There is scarcely a municipality of any consequence in the state which is not now in financial straits. School teachers are too few in number and are paid too small a salary and no relief is in sight along the way the politicians are headed—the lower tax way.

The heavy federal taxes made necessary to meet war expenses must be reduced within the next few years—we can confidently expect that to come—and with that burden off their shoulders the people can certainly, and they will if they are told the whole truth about conditions and are guaranteed an honest and sensibly economical administration of public affairs, pay more money into the public treasury to meet necessary expenses.

The people are prosperous and ready to bear additional tax burdens for the public good, just as soon as some of the war taxes are reduced.

So long as the political managers and office seekers go about the state talking high taxes and promising to reduce them, just so long are cities going to be bankrupt, our school authorities pinched for money and our teachers, the greatest guardians of democracy, are going to be under paid. Affairs can't go on much longer as they are without someone arising who will talk facts. It will be interesting now to observe whether the incoming legislature, confronted with the task of providing more revenue and changing the taxing machinery, will have the courage to strike at the root of the problem or whether it will emerge from its labors, with the old malady still unhealed, presenting as the finished product a vote-catching promise of lower taxes.

The people can hasten the coming of the day when politicians, office seekers and office holders will talk less tax nonsense, by themselves facing the facts and signifying a willingness to provide the finances necessary to properly maintain the social organizations which make this nation great and prosperous.

Public Ownership

It is at least a debatable question whether this nation is yet ready for government ownership or government control even of public utilities, generally speaking.

That fact is recognized by both officials and business men. Whether the railroads should be returned to private ownership and control and upon what terms they should be permanently acquired by the government or returned to their former owners are all grave problems which the people must solve and about which there is certain to occur a wide range of discussion during the next few years.

The control of the transportation lines was acquired as a war measure. The disposition of them now is a matter of industrial and business expediency.

The telegraph and telephone lines and the wireless passed under government control by virtue of the same necessity. The assumption of control of the commercial cable lines occurred after the war was concluded and there has been little agitation for their return to private control.

All of which indicates that government officials and business men regard the means of communication as more properly subjects of government control and a part of the postal system.

There would be, we imagine, little serious objection and wide-spread approval if the wire and wireless methods of communication were permanently acquired by the government as a part of the postal system and operated at actual cost, or a small profit to the government.

POEM FOR TODAY

THE DAY

The predatory noises of the night
 Are hushed before the slowly deep-ending flush
 That mounts the East. The terrified quick rush
 Of hunted things, pursued by savage night,
 Is stilled. The stealthy owl has lost its sight.
 And from the green depths of the mountain brush
 Thrills the elated song of the shy thrush
 That choruses its welcome to the light.

So are they stilled, the hoarsely
 barking guns
 That belched their hatred on a peaceful folk,
 To make of man a helpless, harried
 pawn.
 Their blood cry was suppressed by dauntless sons
 Who scorned to see their peoples wear a yoke
 And fought the night through to the great, bright dawn.

News of Interest to Women

The various organizations of Camp Sherman have planned a royal entertainment for the pleasure of the men at the Base Hospital on Christmas, and the following excerpts from the Scioto Gazette outline the order of entertainment.

"Early Christmas morning, carols will be sung in the wards by the student nurses and at different times throughout the day, a chorus of school children and the choral union of this city will sing appropriate songs for the convalescent soldiers, and Victrola music will dispel the gloom of the contagious wards. The time for the church service has not been decided upon.

Extensive preparations are being made for the decoration of the interior of the hospital, which should bring a large measure of cheer into the hearts of the men who are confined there. It is estimated that there will be about 1500 men in the wards at that time, and Christmas trees and oranges will be provided by the War Camp Community service, the Century Club and D. A. R.'s will furnish table covers and napkins of attractive designs for the Christmas dinner; the Elks and Rotary Club will give candy to all men and Chaplain Page has asked for the privilege of sending X-mas cards.

Mr. E. C. Fellows, field director for the Red Cross at camp, said that the Lake Division of the Red Cross has notified him that each man in the hospital will receive from the Red Cross a cane with a silver band engraved with A. R. C., 1918. Mr. Fellows also reported that there are about 2600 comfort kits in stock at camp, which have never been used, but will need re-filling, because some of the contents cannot now be used. ### OVERHEARD

We overheard a housewife say, while talking about home washing—"This was certainly an ideal wash day; the clothes dried so nicely; but the soot was flying thick through the air." That's not an uncommon thing when all your neighbors' stoves and furnaces, in addition to your own, are in operation. You would not be bothered with the soot, if we do your washing. It never bothers us! And the clothes show it.

The young man was fined $100 and sentenced to 90 days in the Xenia workhouse as a result of a complaint filed by the Probation Officer on behalf of one Edna Johnson, employed in this city.

Zimmerman declared that he regretted the difficulty very much and when he is released from prison he intends to reform. He praised the probation movement in this county, and declared that if the system had been active 5 years ago that he would not have been in the trouble, and that numerous others would have been leading entirely different lives.

The auto will be used by the probation officer, who has felt keenly the need of some such conveyance in order to carry out her work to better advantage.

CLAIM PICTURE SAVED HIS LIFE

Word reaching this city is to the effect that the life of Corporal Jess W. Williams, of the Rainbow Division, was probably saved when a German bullet struck him and striking a photograph of a friend, glanced off.

It is claimed that had it not been for the picture which was carried by the Corporal, the bullet would have penetrated a vital spot.

NORWAY MAY HOP THROUGH

Christiana, Dec. 12th.—(Associated Press Correspondence)—Norwegian leaders in science, politics and business have formed a society for the purpose of enrolling Norway in a League of Nations built upon a democratic base. Professor E. Nansen, the famous Arctic explorer and scientist, has been elected president of the society. In his introductory address, Professor Nansen said:

"The dream of a fraternity of nations has suddenly come within sight. It is the goal of which one of the world's greatest statesmen, President Woodrow Wilson, is aiming. The reason why America is now able to make this Utopian dream a reality is because the nation is young and healthy. America went into the war only to make future wars impossible. It will achieve that end."

DIXIE LEAVES FOR HOME

Queenstown, December 16.—(By Associated Press)—The U. S. S. Dixie, a destroyer tender, which has held a large place in the hearts of the American soldiers and residents here, steamed slowly out of the harbor Sunday on her way home. She was accompanied part of the way with her guns loaded with American sailors, while crowds along the shore and at windows waved flags. The band of the U. S. S. Dixie, her sister ship, played patriotic tunes as the Dixie moved out.

RED CROSS ACTIVITIES

Women of Fayette County! If you have been thinking that you might shakeen your Red Cross work you must disabuse your minds that idea at once, for right away the local Red Cross work shop is needing you badly. The work the Red Cross women are asked to do is increasing, instead of decreasing. In Columbus those in charge claim the work has doubled rather than slackened.

RUSH ORDERS FOR DRESSES FOR REFUGEES

Mrs. Eva J. Penn, local chairman, has received a rush order for one hundred dresses for refugee girls of six years of age. The Lake Division wants them immediately. This is in addition to the order for one hundred pinafores and the rest of the quota of operating gowns. The dresses are now on the way, cut out and ready for the making.

All Red Cross workers and any other women are urged to come to the Red Cross work shop and help Mondays, Wednesdays and Saturdays.

NAVY GUARDS IN CLASH WITH "MEX" ROUGHS

New York, December 16.—(By Associated Press)—In a clash on November 28, between the armed navy guard of the American steamship Monterey and Mexican customs guards at Tampico, one Mexican, said to have been a captain, was killed, a Mexican soldier mortally wounded, and a chief gunner's mate named Berry, in charge of the American guard, seriously hurt. This was learned Sunday with the steamer's arrival here from Havana and Nassau, where she touched after leaving for Tampico.

Members of the armed guard and officers of the ship refused to discuss the incidents, but details were learned from passengers on board at the time. According to them the fight occurred shortly after 5 a. m. after members of the navy guard went to the rescue of Berry, who had been attacked. The Americans at first responded to the call without arms, but upon the Mexicans opening fire they secured their weapons and responded in kind.

The fight, passengers said, was brief, the Mexicans running away as soon as the Americans opened fire, leaving their dead and wounded. Later officials of the port took the matter into hand, the passengers asserted, and a demand was made upon the captain of the Monterey, that the armed guard be delivered up to them pending an investigation.

Refuses to Give Up Crew.
This the captain declined to do, his action being supported, it was said, by officers of two American gunboats in the harbor. Later the matter was disposed of by a decision to leave the whole subject to diplomatic settlement.

It was said that the gunner's mate had gone ashore on an errand just before the Monterey sailed. Several blocks from where the ship was tied up was a saloon, and as Berry was returning to his ship, passing in front of this saloon, he was called upon to "treat." When he refused to do so several Mexicans started after him. As the American approached his ship a shot was fired and Mexican guards then seeing him coming, placed him under detention. It also was asserted that others started to beat him with the butts of their rifles.

The sailor fought back the best he could, and as he drew near the ship he called to his men for assistance. They needed no second invitation, one of the passengers said, and all who were in sight or hearing joined in the fray. Seeing reinforcements coming some of the Mexicans opened fire. No one was hit on the ship.

Mexicans Flee Quickly.
The naval guard then secured arms and, as the firing continued, they returned the shots, with the result that two Mexicans fell. With the show of arms the Mexican fled, leaving the gunner's mate free to return to his ship with his men.
Sound of the firing attracted a considerable crowd, but no further demonstrations were made. Threats were heard, however, and during the 24 hours that the Monterey was detained, pending the investigation of the incident, every precaution was taken to guard against a surprise attack.

The two gunboats were sufficiently close so that they could have rendered assistance to the Monterey had it been required. In addition to hand arms, the Monterey carries a gun mounted on her deck, placed there during the war as a protection against submarines.

On arrival of the Monterey here today the gunner's mate and his men went to the navy yard to make an official report of the matter. Officers of the ship were also questioned by naval authorities.

SLING SHOTS ARE VERY MUCH TABOO

Warning to boys using rubber sling shots inside the city limits has been issued by Chief Moore, with announcement that owners of such slings will be taken in charge if the sling shots are used.

The slings are highly dangerous, and in the hands of careless boys might easily cost the sight of an eye, it is explained by the police.

"FIGHTING CHAPLAIN"

REY FAY F. JENNY

During the American "clean-up" at St. Mihiel the chaplain "went over" with his company, and when every officer had either been killed or wounded he took over command of the men and directed them successfully against German machine-gun nests.

BENEDICT MAY LEAVE VATICAN BREAK RECORD

(By Associated Press)

Rome, December 14.—That Pope Benedict is prepared to abandon a custom of nearly a half century and no longer consider himself bound to remain within the grounds of the Vatican is the firm belief in several circles here.

Many incidents recently have left public opinion toward this belief. No pointif has left the Vatican since 1871 as a protest against the occupation by Rome by the Italian government.

Reports that the Pope would leave the Vatican grounds have appeared many times since the Pope lost his temporal power. During the reign of Pope Benedict the question was brought up first last June when the Vatican issued a denial to a report in Spanish papers that the Pope would leave Rome for Spain.

POPULAR DENTIST ANSWERS TO CALL

Dr. C. E. Page, the oldest dental practitioner of this city, passed away Sunday night at the Fayette Hospital following a week's critical illness, resulting from complications developed after an attack of influenza. He was 63 years of age.

While great anxiety had been aroused in Dr. Page's illness, word of his death yet came as a shock to a host of warm friends in all walks of life and to a large clientele.

Dr. Page was widely known among the dentists of the state, being at the time of his death President of the E. C. Hamilton Branch the local branch of the Rehwinkle Dental Association. He was both an active Mason, belonging to the Blue Lodge, the Chapter, and the Council, and a member of the Knights of Pythias, having held all the offices in the latter organization. He was also a state officer in the Royal Arcanum and one of the foremost leaders in the work of the Humane Society.

Dr. Page is a man who will be missed in this community, with which he had been identified since coming here from Clermont county when a very young man. He taught a short time in the local schools and then took his Dental Course at the University of Michigan. After practicing for a little while in Frankfort, where he was married, Dr. Page returned to Washington and entered the office of his uncle, Dr. J. F. Dennis as assistant, later opening an office for himself and having a constantly growing practice.

He leaves in his immediate family a widow, mother, Mrs. Mary Page, and two brothers, Mr. Encl Page of Springfield, and Mr. John Page, of Greenfield. Both brothers were here during his last illness, his mother being too ill to come over from Springfield. The family, especially the lonely wife, have the deep sympathy of the community.

Funeral services will be held at the home on South North street on Wednesday at 9 a. m. Burial will be made in the Frankfort cemetery.

TO PUSH WORK ON COLUMBUS PIKE

The County Commissioners, County Highway Superintendent and County Auditor will go to Columbus Tuesday for the purpose of pushing the preliminaries to constructing the Columbus pike, and it is understood that they will be accompanied by various citizens of the county who are deeply interested in having the Columbus pike rebuilt as speedily as possible.

The County Commissioners of Fayette have been leaders in the movement to have the improvement made, because the bulk of the improvement necessary to form the connecting link between Washington and Columbus lies in Fayette county, and because of the urgent need of a better automobile road between this city and the state capital.

MORE CLOTHES AND LESS COAL THIS MAN URGES

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, December 13.—It is our patriotic duty to put on more clothes, save coal and improve health," was the substance of an address before the Public Health Administration section of the American Public Health Association by Dr. Jeanette F. Throckmorton, of Claritan, Iowa.

"There are fashions not only in dress, but in trend of thought and morals," Dr. Throckmorton continued. "The impulse which moved our primitive ancestors to adopt dress were, first vanity, next protection and lastly modesty. Of these, that of protection seems most often disregarded by the gentler sex. The custom of wearing summer clothing in winter is a pernicious one, and the continual chilling of the skin causes congestion of the internal organs with attendant ills."

"Dress and morals are intimately associated and modesty in dress appears in demand but little at present. Our adolescent daughters often use poor judgment not only in dress but in conduct."

"Erect carriage and gait are important qualities and are influenced by the style of corset and shoes worn."

PRINCE AMONG THE CONQUERORS

British Headquarters in France.—(Associated Press Correspondence).—The Prince of Wales' desire to refrain from attracting public attention, was manifested when he entered the freed city of Valenciennes. With him were General Horn, commander of the First army; the commander of a Canadian division which was operating about the town itself and other divisional commanders and staff officers. In the ancient square where stands the beautiful Hotel De Ville, a platform had been re-erected. Here the Prince and British commanders were received by the city officials and local dignitaries while the troops draw up two deep about the square. Addresses of thanks for deliverance were made by the officials to which the Prince and Generals responded. A review of the troops followed and then the Prince with characteristic bashfulness slipped quietly away from the platform and disappeared into the crowd, leaving his generals to attend to any further formalities. His work was done and he dreaded to be the center of more ovations. His light uniform of khaki made his escape easy and he was seen no more.

Only one really unusual incident occurred during the ceremony and that revolved about the goat mascot of one of the divisions in the parade. The goat had followed in with his men as befitting a proper mascot but once in the square he was rudely relegated to the rear ranks. It chanced that a number of red hatted staff officers took up their position in front of the goat and stood during the inspection at attention with huge bouquets out back from under their arms. When the inspection was over the officers stood at ease again and looked to their bouquets. They were holding only stems. The mascot had taken a sweet revenge and a square meal for the insult to his dignity.

OHIO BOY LOCATED IN AUSTRIA WRITES TO A FRIEND HERE

The accompanying letter, written by an Ohio boy, has been received by a friend in this city, and is the first letter reaching this city from an American soldier who helped chase the Austrian soldiers across northern Italy in the greatest debacle of the war and is now located in Austria.

Austria, 341, Nov. 18.

My Dear Friend!—

I have written several letters since I started on this famous march but couldn't get them censored. We received mail last night, the first time for ten days.

We are now in Austria, north of the Adriatic Sea. We were in the big drive with the Austrians, and hiked all the way from Treviso (via Udine) it sure was some hike as we had to carry everything with us and a sure was some heavy load.

Wolke took sick about five days ago and was taken back to the hospital. I have not heard how he is since then. I guess they took him to Treviso. That is where we were stationed before we started on the big drive. Well, he is not missing much. I see they are having an awful time with the flu in the States. We have only had a couple of cases in our regiment, no deaths that I know of. We are now in Austrian quarters. There were Austrian soldiers in here during the war. We are near a small town. You can buy nothing there but wine and post cards, just a few other things. Everything is awfully high priced. We got another blanket yesterday and also our overcoats and we need them as it has been pretty cold the last few days. It has frozen here already. We have some heat here so it is not bad. We have been here three nights. It is the first place that we have had a building to sleep in since we started on the march, it was warm all the time. We even went in swimming in a river at one place where we camped. Everything is green and it is full of flowers so it does not seem much like November. It only rained a little bit during the whole trip and it made things better for the hike. Well, the war is over at last, but it is hard telling how soon we will get to come home. The latest paper was November 14th, so we do not know much about what is going on. When we were back in Treviso we got the daily Italian papers also the American papers from Paris which were only three days late. The Austrians tried to wake us up several times but we had all turned up by a raid and one night that shook things up some. They dropped several bombs near the barracks. The city of Treviso has been all torn up by air raids, they only had one while we were there. 2 nights before we left when the artillery started the drive the Austrians were using long range guns and dropped a few shells near our barracks. They did not do any damage but made us lose a lot of good sleep. Well, it is getting near Thanksgiving; don't think we will have turkey this year. It sure would be nice if we could be home for Xmas but am not counting on it. I wish they would send us to Rome or in southern Italy until time to start home. We were in Milan and were near Verona most of the time while in Italy. I would like to see Rome and Venice. I saw the tomb of James J. Hill in Verona. Well, paper is scarce and I am getting close to the end of this, so will close.

OHIO IS LEADING ALL OTHER STATES

Columbus, O., December 16.—War Savings Stamp sales reports being compiled at State Headquarters here show that to November 28, the State has bought $161,742,699, face value, of these securities. The State is now within striking distance of its goal of $205,227,639, the quota allotted by the United States Treasury Department.

Ohio is the only State where the sales of War Savings stamps has exceeded the $100,000,000 mark. Aggregate stamp absorption in the nation approximates $1,100,000,000, of which Ohio's share is about 10 per cent. Whereas the State's 1918 expenditure was for but five per cent of the total issue authorized.

Of the State's 88 counties, 51 have completed the 1918 quota. Last month 28 joined the War Savings Victory List.

Morrow county holds a national record by having doubled its quota. Per capita sales in that county are $41.21, with gross sales of $692,405. The quota was $336,399.

TWELVE SPIES DIE IN LONDON TOWER DURING THE WAR

(By Associated Press).—London, December 16.—During the war 12 spies were shot in the Tower of London, according to the report now current. Carl Hans Lody, alias Charles A. Jorgis, who at one time was a resident of Omaha, Neb., was the first to be executed.

Two women spies were sentenced to death, but both were reprieved, the sentences being commuted to one prison term. One of the women, Jessie Werthe, regarded as very dangerous, was tried in company with a man named Rowlands, Rowlands was executed. This couple made frequent journeys between London and Rosyth, Scotland, and obtained information regarding the movements of the British fleet. This information, however, it is declared, never reached Germany.

The other woman spy was Eva De Bormeuville, who is now undergoing penal servitude for life. One spy hanged himself in British prison. Many others escaped the extreme penalty.

BARGAIN TIME IS HERE FOR WASHINGTON HERALD SUBSCRIBERS

Beginning Monday, December 9th, and continuing until further notice, The Herald will open its annual bargain month subscription offer, available only to subscribers receiving The Herald by mail outside of Washington C. H., Ohio. This year, notwithstanding the increased cost of production and greatly augmented service which Fayette county's big newspaper is giving its readers, every day in these times of gripping interest, when the great problems of peace and readjustment of international relations and rearrangement of our own domestic affairs, industrial and commercial, are scarcely less important than those of war, the rate to subscribers receiving their paper by mail outside of Washington C. H., Ohio will be

ONE YEAR FOR $3.00 FOR ONE YEAR

The date of the subscription expiration is printed in plain figures on the address of each paper. Look at the address on your paper and see when your subscription expires. Don't delay in renewing your subscription, as a withdrawal of this really remarkably low offer may be necessitated any day by a change in business conditions. The print paper markets are in an unsettled condition and increased cost may cause a withdrawal of this low bargain time offer. THIS OFFER IS FOR CASH IN ADVANCE. All subscriptions are promptly discontinued at the expiration of the time paid for.

Don't Wait Until the Last Minute, But Attend to Your Herald Subscription at Once!

You know what The Herald is and you know that no Fayette county family circle is complete without its daily visit. DON'T TAKE CHANCES. ACT NOW!

The above subscription price on papers to be sent by mail beyond the second postal zone will be increased by an amount equal to the increased postage charges in those zones. Attend to your Herald subscription while the Bargain Rate is on.

A CLEAR COMPLEXION

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, constipated bowels, a listless, no-good feeling, a host of ills, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets daily for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women as well as men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep in the pink of condition. 10c and 25c boxes. All druggists.
